

Southern District Women's Golf Association (SDWGA)

Southern District is an organization of multiple clubs located in southern Arizona. It plans and conducts golf events in southern Arizona for its members and assists member clubs upon request.

Membership is $10.00 per year dues, paid to your home club. Southern District (SD) sponsors two tournaments run by the local SDWGA representative at each member club. These 2 tournaments are:

Telegraph: This is a one-day net event costing $1.00 (with the SDWGA subsidy added). It is a flighted tournament.

Del Sud is a 2-day eclectic (better your score on each hole on the second day). There is an overall net winner and flight net winners.

This organization also sponsors several tournaments open to all members in good standing. It's always a chance to play great courses in the Southern District and at great prices. Included in these events are these 3 tournaments:

Winter Scotch (1 day tournament in February)

Spring 4-Ball (2 day tournament in May)

Fall Partners (2 day tournament in October or November)

For more up-to-date information on current tournament days, posting scores, club invitations and other useful information, please visit the Southern District website at www.sdwga.com